

ABOUT The honors program is designed for exceptional departmental majors who wish to complete a research project that culminates in an honors thesis.

ADMISSION The honors program is open to departmental majors with a 3.5 grade-point average in upper division courses in the major and a 3.0 overall GPA. Students should apply for admission by spring quarter of their junior year. For application forms and further information, contact the departmental undergraduate adviser.

REQUIREMENTS The honors program is a three-term sequence (Slavic 198A, 191H, 198B), taken in addition to requirements for the major, that culminates in the submission of a thesis. In most circumstances the courses are taken in the senior year (fall, winter, and spring quarters).

To qualify for graduation with departmental honors, students must (1) complete all requirements for the major, (2) have a cumulative grade-point average of 3.5 or better in upper division courses required for the major and an overall GPA of 3.0 or better, and (3) complete Slavic 198A, 191H, and 198B.

To qualify for graduation with departmental highest honors, students must (1) complete all requirements for the major, (2) have a cumulative grade-point average of 3.8 or better in upper division courses required for the major and an overall GPA of 3.5 or better, and (3) complete Slavic 198A, 191H, and 198B with a grade of A in each course.

Honors and highest honors are recorded on the final transcript and diploma after students successfully complete the program.
