

Unfinished Piece for the Player Piano

Join the students of Russian 1 for a screening of Nikita Mikhalkov's Неоконченная пьеса для механического пианино on Tuesday, October 24 at 6 PM in Haines 118

A scenic estate by a provincial Russian lake: a still-life upon which a gathering of members of the Russian gentry unfolds. Here the intrigues of romances lost and fought for, the weight of the destiny of the peasants and working class, and familial tensions sing out to the tune of an useless instrument, a machine that has no ending written for it. Come and see how these anxieties and issues roll along in this adaptation of Anton Chekhov's unfinished first play. Light snacks and drinks to be provided.
